Best Wishes

Martha,

There's so much I want to say, I can't put it all into words. I can't tell you how much I've "Thanked God" for having you as a friend these past few years & especially this year. We have always been friends but this year we have gotten closer because of events that was close to both of our hearts. (Even though these were sad ones). We have stuck together through sadness, heartbreak & sorrow, and also through hours of happiness. You have stood by me when I've needed a helping hand & gave me enough courage to not give up on things (-----)

And thanks for always listening to my problems & helping me figure out how to solve them. I think that at times if I hadn't talked to you about certain things I would surely not be here. When I've cried you've tried to console me, and try your very best to get me in a cheerful mood again.

If I hadn't had you to come to with all my problems I honestly don't know what I would have done. I hope you will always be there when I need you to talk to, and I'm sure you will be. Cause you're just the type of person who would never let a friend down when they needed you.

I hope you will be happy to hear from me soon

SPIRIT

Martha,

We're finally finished with one more year. Just think next year we're Seniors. Well Martha, I think you're a true Bobcat-there's just nobody else like you. If everyone had as much spirit as you it would be a whole lot easier to chew.

I can't tell you what your friendship has meant to me this year. There's been many times when I came in feeling bad and looked at your smiling face. It always cheers me up.

I want to wish you the best of luck always.

Love, Linda

"Go Bobcats" '68-'69

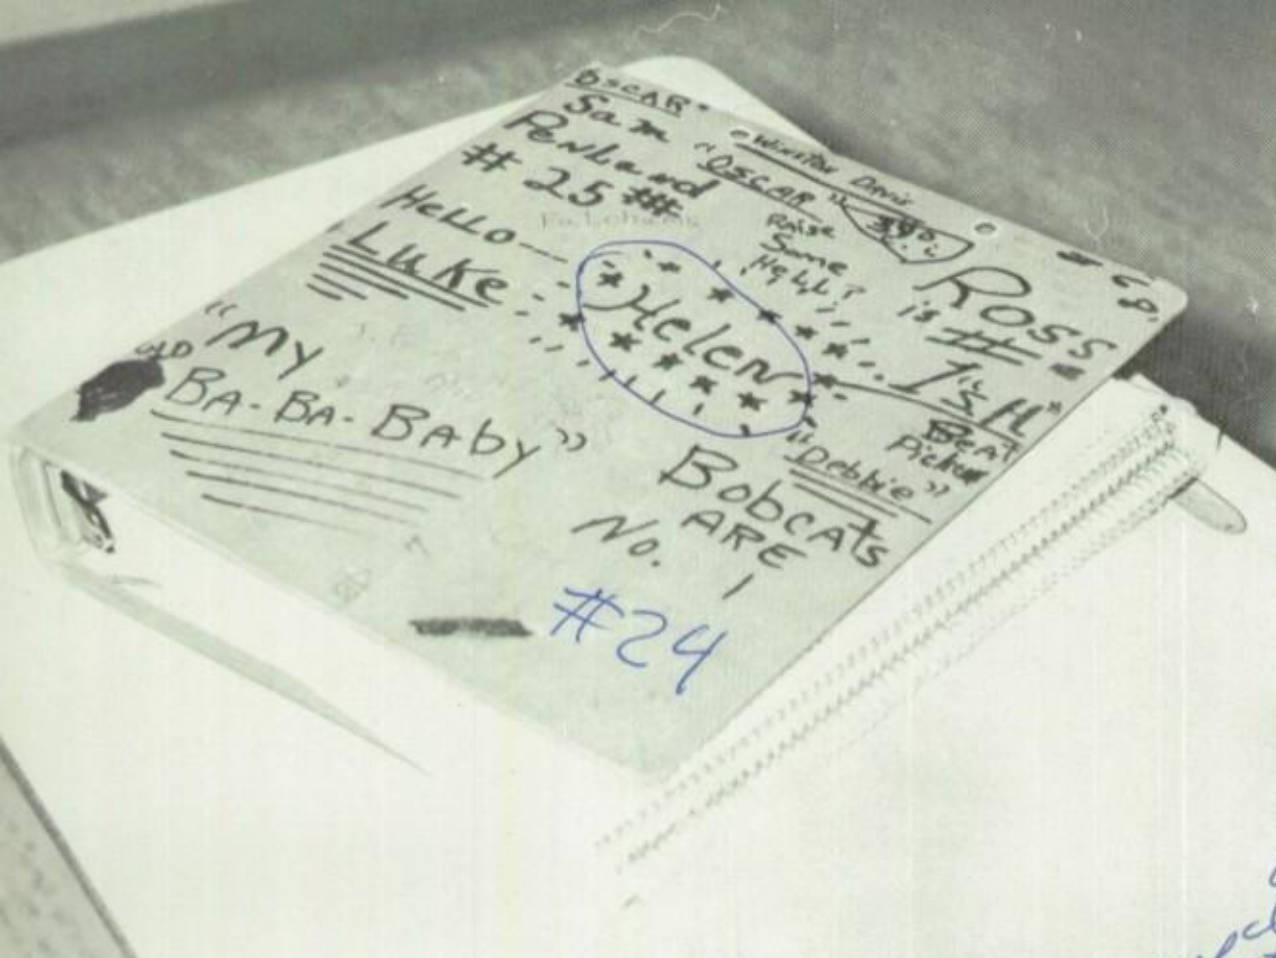

What would a high school be without cheering crowds, bouncy cheerleaders, and class yells? A group of students are bound together by a silent force called "spirit." They hold in common a belief, a pride, a faith. Never will be forgotten the yell, "We're from Gilmer and we couldn't be prouder!"

"Let him have it!"

LEARNING

Martha,
Well, you will be a Senior next year, and I must say that it will be a very short year of your life.
I will never begin to tell you what your friendship and cheerful smile has done for me. ~~Just~~ Just stay that way and you will make it all of the way. Give 'em heck next year in basketball.

The purpose of any high school is to enlighten its students. A worn eraser, furrowed brow, raised hand, an eager look are things of beauty. Teaching is an art and learning is a privilege. Thank God for that privilege!

"Just think, kids, only 4 more years to go."

"Mr. Jones, please, I'd rather do it myself!"

"Hey, club, it's the Popeye Gang!"

LAUGHTER

"She's got bloomers on her, but she's pretty."

"We'll get Slim yet!"

In our youthful years there is much time for carefree moments. A teenager is not a teenager without a frequent smile and friendly laugh. Without our silly moods and ridiculous moments, we would not be able to face the pressures of the present and the demands of the future. It is true courage to be able to smile when you have failed and be willing to try again in the face of hardships.

"Got any 'gom'??"

I'm yawning!!

The helping hand that pulled you from the depths of despair . . . the hand of a friend. A strong push for your stalled car, nimble fingers to mend a tear in your dress, the guiding light of a person who is wiser and stronger, or the soft touch of one who cares. All of these symbolize friendship . . . the friendship of Gilmer High.

FRIENDSHIPS

Activities are an important part of any school. A time to depart from studies, to strengthen friendships, to enjoy life, and to have a good time. The activities we engage in at GHS are one of the most enjoyable times in our curriculum.

ACTIVITIES

At times all students feel an urge to express themselves. It may be in singing, painting, acting, writing, drawing a poster, making a cake, building a table, or a gun rack. Whatever the means, the student finds an outlet for his innermost feelings and thoughts.

To Mr. Jimmy Jones, we the Annual Staff make this dedication with no reservations, for it has been well earned in the services he has rendered to each of us.

Helping to ease our daily tensions with his great disposition, his humor and wit were always welcomed. He always seemed to understand our actions. It took a great deal to make him angry; but when he reacted, we promised we would never do it again.

He has dedicated himself to the task of instilling in inquiring students a love for higher math. He simplifies math so that all may like it. In our thinking he will remain a master craftsman in the classroom.

THE GILMER HIGH BAND

Majorettes: Carole Cochran, Janie Call, Jan Prince, Daphne Davis.

"When did you start taking band, Mr. Posey?"

"Yankee Doodle went to town . . ."

The Gilmer High Band has been newly organized this year under the direction of Mr. Newsum. Building a band is like building an athletic program. It takes years of practice and hard work to see results. The Gilmer Band shows the promise of becoming an outstanding group. Our hats are off to a group of hard-working students and a dedicated leader.

THE ADMINISTRATION

Heading up a factory for learning is a weighty task for any man. Authority must be doled out in correct amounts, impartiality must be displayed, good judgment must be used, a willingness to work for the betterment of the school must be present. These qualities are very much a part of the make-up of Mr. Kenneth Beaver, Superintendent of the Gilmer County Schools, and Mr. C. A. Reynolds, Principal of Gilmer High. As he plans to make the most of every opportunity, Mr. Beaver has led the Gilmer schools to new achievements. Walking the halls, visiting a class, making announcements during assembly, talking over a problem, Mr. Reynolds is a familiar figure to every Gilmer High student. Ready to praise when credit was due or to reprimand when necessary, he expressed his pride in being the head of our fine school.

THE FACULTY--A PATIENT PEOPLE

How can we as students understand the overwrought nerves, tensed emotions, tired voices of those who teach us? We can sit quietly and daydream our worries away while a teacher, no matter how keyed up, must continue to do what he is there to do and that is to teach. He must keep a tight rein on his emotions no matter how discourteous the girl in the back of the room or how stubborn the boy in the first row. With patience a teacher can attain wonders in procuring answers from that stubborn boy; without it that discourteous girl may never again hold respect for the instructor.

Star Student

Through his superior scholastic achievement, Billy Waters, Gilmer's most outstanding basketball athlete, has gained the honor of Star Student, 1968. A dependable Senior, Billy holds the position of chief photographer on the BOBCAT staff. Without the aid he has given, the 1968 BOBCAT would be a poor excuse for a school yearbook. Tied for top region 3-A scoring, Billy is an outstanding athlete determined to be first in region scoring. Aside from these qualities, Billy has shown himself to be a mature young adult, striving to reach the high goals he has set for himself.

SENIORS ATTAIN TOP HONORS

Sandra Sanford, an exceptional Senior, took top honors in the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow test. An excellent seamstress who sews much of her personal wardrobe, Sandra is not limited to sewing only, being a select cook and an efficient economist among her other attributes. A unique individual, Sandra is reserved in manner, worthy of character, and of a benevolent nature; she unquestionably deserves the title of Homemaker of Tomorrow.

IN MEMORY OF CHARLES WEAVER

Let no man write Charlie's epitaph. His kind heart and sense of humor alone immortalized him forever in the hearts of those who knew him.

A friend to everyone, Charles was always there to brighten the day with a witty, good-natured remark. He helped to make classes livelier and friendships stronger, not only by his warm vitality, but by his presence alone.

Let no man write his epitaph, he wrote it himself . . .

I can't think of anybody's cherish more than I do yours except maybe Jerry's. You're always so understanding about all my problems with Jerry. Well, I wonderful person!

Martha,
I haven't had a chance to really get to know you this year, but I do know you well enough to see that you are one of the best and sweetest girls in Dilmer High. If all the girls in Ellijay even came close to you, a team of wild horses couldn't drag me away - not even to Mississippi! I don't know what your plans are for the future, but I wish you much happiness and success.

certainly deserve them.
